Barrett Brooks' Tackling Together Foundation Swings into its 1st NFL Scholarship Golf Classic at Pine Hill Golf Club

Cherry Hill, NJ - Monday, June 29, 2009 --The Tackling Together Foundation, Inc. will host its first annual NFL Scholarship Golf Classic on Monday, June 29th, at the Pine Hill Golf Club (PHGC), Pine Hill, NJ. In addition to co-host and former NFL star and Eagle (OT), Barrett Brooks, the golf classic will be attended by former and present NFL greats including Irving Frier, retired former Eagle (WR); Mike Quick, former Eagle (WR) and current Radio/WYSP-FM 94.1 color commentator for the Eagles; Marc Woodard, former Eagle (LB), and Jon Runyan, current Eagle, (OT), free agent. Other invited guests will include current and alumni players from the Eagles, Flyers, and Phillies.

"Our goal is to raise between $50,000-$75,000 for an estimated 18 scholarships to defray tuition costs at area institutions of higher learning to be awarded to less fortunate youth living in inner cities over the next two years," explained Brooks. "This is our way of giving back and to have an immediate impact on the lives of young people and their families located in Philadelphia, where I began my NFL career, Camden County, NJ, where my family lives, and St. Louis, my hometown."
